

2019 World University Games

Naples, Italy

3rd – 14th July

Team Ireland Women's Football Team Selection Criteria

Team Ireland Women's Football Selection Criteria
2019 World University Games
Naples, Italy
3rd – 14th July

Introduction

Student Sport Ireland is the sole sanctioning body responsible for identifying, selecting and organising Irish teams and individuals to attend the 2019 FISU World University Games. The following criteria has been developed in conjunction with the Women's Soccer Colleges Association of Ireland.

Women's Football Selection Criteria.

Selection for the Women's Football squad to participate at the 2019 World University Games will be based on continuous assessment of eligible third level student players by a scouting team appointed by the FAI Women's International Department participating in the following competitions and trial games.

- Games in all Third Level Competitions sanctioned by the WSCAI that are to be played between October 2017 and March 2019
- These competitions include – CUFL Women's Premier Division and Division One, and WSCAI Intervarsities.
- Observation of players in the FAI So Hotels Women's National League and IFA Danske Bank Football League.
- Observation of players in Northern Ireland and Republic of Ireland national team squads at Senior and U19 Level.
- The following assessments:
 - World University Games Team Assessments

In addition to the above:

- Player performance and observation of preparation at assessments and on international team duty (if applicable) will be a consideration.
- The Head Coach will have representation at a selection of WSCAI competitions throughout the season and will receive reports on the games and players involved.
- Performance levels, attitude and discipline of student athletes throughout the 2017-18 and 2018-2019 Third Level Football seasons will be considered in the selection process.