Introduction

Student Sport Ireland is the sole sanctioning body responsible for identifying, selecting and organising Irish teams and individuals to attend the 2015 FISU World University Games. The following criteria has been developed in conjunction with the College and Universities Football League.

Men's Football Squad Selection Criteria

Selection for the Men's Football squad to participate at the 2015 World University Games will be based on continuous assessment of eligible third level student players by a scouting team appointed by the team manager participating in the following competitions and trial games.

- Colleges and University football League (CUFL) games
- CFAI Cup games to be played between November 2014 and March 2015
- CUFL semi-finals and final played in February 2015
- Collingwood Cup February 2015
- The following trial games:
 - WUG's Trials
 - Final Trial Game (Date to be confirmed)
- Continuous observation of College and University students playing for their club teams.

In addition to the above:

- Consideration will be given to performances at IUFU and CFAI national team trials.
- Player performance and observation of preparation at trial games and on IUFU and CFAI national team duty will be a consideration.
- The team manager will have representation at CUFL and Collingwood Cup fixtures and will receive reports on the games and players involved.
- Performance levels, attitude and discipline of student athletes will be considered in the selection process.
